ONLINE ARTICLES PUBLISHED:

* The numerous amount of articles published online by myself, about IT matters, makes hard to related it in a complete list. Please, if it's precise to find some examples, any Internet Search Engine could show the main results related to my name. Thanks for understanding.

Conferences

Since the beginning of my career (2003) I have been invited to participate as speaker in more than one hundred conferences, both for the public sector and for the private sector. Subjects are varied, always related with IT - Law matters. Data protection use being the most important issue, with copy right rules, e-commerce and customers, or cybercrime facts. It is hard to make a precise and complete list about interventions at different kind of events: Universities, Town Halls, Associations, IT Companies, Spanish Bar Associations, Law firms, etc. Also international events: "A discussion around how to reconcile potential tensions between protecting civil liberties and keeping people safe". Safety at Twitter: For a Healthy Conversation. Twitter headquarters. Sa Francisco. California (2018). "New reforms in Spanish criminal law" invited by Google ("International Developments in Libel, Privacy, Newsgathering and Media IP Law". London Conference by Media Law Resource Center & Google Workshop. 2009 and 2014); The INterior Ministry of Holland, to the "Fighting against Terrorism by Internet" workshop (Viena, 2015), or by The Greens/ EFA. European Parliament: " Financing Culture in the Digital Era" Public conference in Brussels (08.06.2010).
